7:30PM (doors open at 6:30pm)

The Jabez Sanford Hardin

Performing Arts Center

Evans, Georgia

The Annie Moses Band's innovative sound has delighted audiences around the world and they're ready for the holidays at the Jabez S. Hardin Performing Arts Center. The band will perform its Christmas-themed show at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 20, 2017.

The Annie Moses Band performs a blend of folk and classical music. The band, comprised of extraordinary musicians from the same family, has a sound all its own. The siblings call their style "chamber pop" – a spicy blend of classical, jazz and pop, mixed with some good old-fashioned country.

The Annie Moses band combines the best of beloved genres in a style that unifies audiences, young and old, classical connoisseurs and roots enthusiasts, jazz aficionados and bluegrass buffs.

A limited number of reserved seat tickets ($49.00) for this special evening of Christmas with The Annie Moses Band are available online at www.augustaamusements.com. The doors open at 6:30, and guests are encouraged to wear festive colors of the season and walk the red carpet to the entrance of the beautiful Jabez Hardin Performing Arts Center.
